SAT Prep: Private Tutoring

Master the New SAT Exam

Northern Virginia Tutoring Service, LLC offers private tutoring to prepare for the SAT. For your convenience, we offer the following two options.

Option 1: Pay as you go.

To sign up for tutoring, you will sign a straight-forward contract, in which you agree to pre-pay five hours of tutoring at $90.00/hour, as well as a 1 time non-refundable $30.00 administrative fee. Any hours of pre-paid tutoring that you do not use are fully refundable. If you use all five of the pre-paid hours, you will then be billed monthly for tutoring that has already taken place. We do credit card billing, which makes things easy for you!

Option 2: 10 session package deal

A variation on Option 1. You prepay 10 sessions at the discounted rate of $80.00/hour. If you do not use all 10 hours, the hours you did use will revert to our regular $90.00/hour rate, and you will be refunded the remaining pre-paid balance. Should you wish to continue tutoring after the 10 hours have been used, you will be billed at the regular rate of $90.00/hour, or you can purchase another 10 session package.

More about our services:

We provide in-home tutoring. Since we do require a parent or other adult to be present during tutoring, you can also choose to meet at your child's school or a local public library. You will arrange the schedule directly with the tutor, so you can meet as frequently or as infrequently as your child needs. Because you do not sign a long-term contract with us, you can discontinue tutoring at no charge with 24 hour notice.

About our SAT tutors:

All our tutors have a minimum of a B.A. Most are current or former classroom teachers. All are very familiar with the new version of the SAT.
